But don't take our word for it, read what our customers have to say:

"At Magna, we had four different vendors for Flex and COBRA services; we chose to consolidate with BASIC. A company of our size needs a TPA that specializes in Flex and COBRA. BASIC had all the key components we require for a successful partnership; advanced technical abilities and systems, responsiveness, flexibility, and regulation expertise. If they can support Magna with its diversity and radical decentralization across the U.S., they can support anyone."
